

The logo for Queensland Art Gallery of Modern and Contemporary Art (QAGOMA) is displayed at the top center. It features the letters 'QAGOMA' in a bold, sans-serif font, with a stylized 'Q' that incorporates a wave-like shape. The logo is positioned between a large orange circle in the top left and a dark blue brushstroke in the top right.

ART GALLERY TOUR of Indigenous Art in Asia Pacific Triennial

DATE: Sunday, 6 April 2025

TIME: Start 10am (approx 1 hour duration)

LOCATION: Meet upstairs at Information Desk

Queensland Gallery of Art

An orange oval shape with several horizontal black wavy lines inside, located on the left side of the page.

This is a Special Curated Tour for
FIRST NATIONS ALLIES

TOUR COST: Free

REFRESHMENTS: GoMA Café
Tour Guides will join us

Lunch is a personal expense

RSVP Linda

ART GALLERY

QAG not GOMA

Stanley Place, Cultural Precinct

A dark green oval shape with several small white dots scattered inside, located on the right side of the page.A thick, wavy orange brushstroke that curves across the bottom of the page.

Optional: Artist Talk After Refreshments

Artist Talk: Kim Ah Sam

When

12.30 – 1.00 pm, Sun 6 Apr 2025

Where

Queensland Art Gallery, Gallery 4

About

Join Triennial artist, Kim Ah Sam for a talk about her free-form sculptural weavings, reminiscent of Kalkadoon Country, from the Woven Identity: "It's not only me" 2024 series.

Ah Sam's work reflects an embodied act of cultural reconnection and restitution, offering a powerful exploration of identity and heritage through intricate, tactile art.

Hosted by Sophia Sambono, Associate Curator, Indigenous Australian Art, QAGOMA.

